Dawood's properties to go under hammer today

By Raju Vernekar

The forfeited properties of underworld don Dawood Ibrahim in Mumbai and Aurangabad, worth nearly Rs 5 crore (reserve price) will be sold by a competent authority under SAFEMFOPA and NDPS Act in an auction organised in Mumbai, today.

Official sources in Competent authority's office in South Mumbai said that an unexpected number of bids have been received through e-auctioning website and the usual manual process.

As per the public notice (No 02/2017) issued by the Union

Ministry of Finance, the properties will be sold simultaneously by way of tender, public auction and e-auction to be held at IMC Building, Churchgate between 10 AM and 12 noon. The time will be extended by three minutes after each bid on the portal of auction - www.eauction.auctiontiger.net

The properties are :a) building structure at No 24, double stoned building, located at Yakooob street, Shabnam Guest House (City survey No 4334), Bhendi Bazar, Mumbai 400009 (tenanted building)- reserve price- Rs 1,21,43,000/- (earned

'B' ALPHABET HELPS 'BANDRA' POLICE BUST BURGLARS

By Zuber Ansari

In a rare instance highlighting their detection skills, the Bandra police nabbed gang of four robbers by tracking the alphabet "B" on their car. In the CCTV footage, the Bandra police could only identify the car model with the number plate not visible. But, the light of a passing by car helped to identify the alphabet "B" which was plainly visible. This vital breakthrough helped the cops to make further progress in this case, as they then managed to nab the robbers from different parts of the country.

According to Bandra police sources, last month, a bunch of robbers broke into the Jansagh Tours and Travel office situated in Bandra, and within minutes decamped with cash of around Rs six lakhs from the office.

Later, on owner's complaint, FIR
